“Shannon brings a track record of success to his new position, most recently leading our global business development efforts. He knows our business, has worked with our key customers throughout the Eastern Hemisphere, and is an excellent leader,” Miller said. “During Joe’s 45 years at Halliburton, he has set the standard for extraordinary leadership, customer commitment, and strategic execution. I am confident Shannon will continue this strong legacy of success in the region.”

Slocum joined Halliburton in 2005 as senior manager of Innovation and Marketing and has served in roles of increasing responsibility. Prior to his current position, Slocum held leadership roles around the world, including as senior vice president for the Eurasia, Europe, and Sub-Saharan Africa region; vice president, Cementing product service line; and vice president, Indonesia. He holds a bachelor’s degree in industrial technology from Lamar University.
