

Halliburton Charitable Foundation Raises $4 Million for more than 100 Charities Nationwide

October 2, 2024

Annual golf tournament exceeds $34 million raised for nonprofits over the past 31 years

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 2, 2024-- The Halliburton Charitable Foundation today hosted its 31st annual Halliburton Charity Golf Tournament (HCGT). The annual fundraising event, which benefits more than 100 charities, raised a record-breaking $4 million in donations.

Since its inception in 1993, the tournament has grown into one of the largest non-PGA fundraising golf tournaments in Texas with a total of $34 million raised.

"For over three decades, it has been an honor for our foundation to contribute to the incredible work of so many charitable organizations," said Jeff Miller, Halliburton chairman, president, and CEO. "We appreciate the ongoing support from our sponsors, whose generosity makes the Halliburton Charity Golf Tournament possible. This event holds great significance because it delivers tangible benefits to individuals and families. What began as a small initiative has expanded to support more than 100 charities each year, and it's remarkable to witness the meaningful impact this tournament makes across communities nationwide."
