Charities Nationwide Receive Funds Raised Through the Halliburton Charity Golf Tournament

November 19, 2026

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 19, 2026-- The Halliburton Charitable Foundation raised more than $4 million through the annual Halliburton Charity Golf Tournament at The Clubs of Kingwood. The funds will benefit more than 100 nonprofit organizations in 24 cities. These organizations support communities where Halliburton operates through programs focused on education, workforce development, health and safety, and social services. Since 1993, the tournament has raised more than $38 million to benefit over 250 charitable organizations.

“The Halliburton Charity Golf Tournament shows what we can accomplish when employees, sponsors, and community organizations come together to support meaningful causes,” said Jeff Miller, Halliburton chairman, president, and CEO. “For more than three decades, this event has expanded opportunities and resources for nonprofit organizations that make a difference every day. We appreciate our sponsors and participants for their support of programs that improve lives and strengthen communities.”

Representatives from nonprofit organizations attended this year’s event to share their missions and highlight how support from the Halliburton Charitable Foundation benefits their communities. The 2026 onsite charities include:
