HALLIBURTON

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HALLIBURTON AND BAKER HUGHES RECEIVE EXPECTED REQUESTS FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FROM DOJ

HOUSTON – February 10, 2015 – Halliburton Company (NYSE: HAL) and Baker Hughes Incorporated (NYSE: BHI) today announced that, as expected, the companies have each received a request for additional information (“second requests”) from the United States Department of Justice (“DOJ”) in connection with Halliburton’s pending acquisition of Baker Hughes. The second requests were issued under the notification requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (“HSR Act”).

The second requests are a standard part of the regulatory review process by the DOJ and were expected by Halliburton and Baker Hughes. The effect of the second requests is to extend the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act until 30 days after Halliburton and Baker Hughes have substantially complied with the requests, unless that period is extended voluntarily by both parties or terminated sooner by the DOJ. Halliburton and Baker Hughes are working cooperatively with DOJ as it conducts its review of the transaction, which remains subject to shareholder and other approvals, as well as customary closing conditions.
